Class History

On an autumn day in September of 1948 a small covey of six-year-olds flocked into New Knoxville school for the first time. Little did we, those thirty-four over awed youngsters, suspect that we were destined to be graduated from New Knoxville High School as the class of '60. Guided by the motherly hand of Mrs. Holtkamp, we learned among other things the ABC's, the pledge to the flag and how to get along with other children. In second grade printing was abandoned as Mrs. Grimes guided our eager hands in forming written letters. By the time we reached third grade we found nap-time extremely tedious, so Mrs. Katterhienrich relieved us of this duty on special occasions. Soon after we entered fourth grade, Mrs. Sparks initiated us into the mysteries of phonics, to help us in pronouncing words. We entered fifth grade and under Mr. Musser's authority long division arithmetic problems became a major dilemma. Mr. Stienecker, our sixth grade teacher, acquainted us with handicrafts, notably rope-making. Each of us felt a burst of pride, for now we would mingle with upperclassmen and sit by them in study-hall. This year we planned and attended a hayride, our first class party. The high spot of our eighth year was the invitation extended to our class to the spring high school party as special guests of the seniors. As freshmen we were ably initiated by the sophomores at their high school party. During this year John Lowenbergh joined the class. Before the year was over we experienced all the joys of high school academic life; scholarship tests, quiet study halls and English Class. At the party we sponsored in our sophomore year, we strived to give the freshmen an initiation they would never forget. This year the class bade goodby to Ralph Wierwille and welcomed Leon Schoenline. In our junior year we gave our first class play, a riotous comedy entitled "The Atomic Blonde". We organized the Junior-Senior Prom and decorated the gym in silver, blue and white according to our theme, "Some Enchanted Evening". Our ranks were whittled to twenty-two by the loss of Leon Schoenline, Karen Gruebmeyer and John Lowenbergh. Now after 11 years of schooling, 1960 finds us as Seniors nearing the end of our high school career; eagerly awaiting the Prom, our class trip. . . . . and graduation.

Senior Song

Richard Bambauer, trusty lad
A-popping corn for every game
To chorus lent a deep rich bass
In farming sought acclaim.

Dean Clausing managed basketball
And kept attendance records
He charmed the cooks and cheered the Reds
Aspired as history mentor.

Our Donnie Eversman so gay
Regaled us oft with jest
In business life he pondered much
Where he could serve the best.

Linda Fledderjohann, so kind,
Was friendly and attractive.
In teaching she will surely find
Rewards for all her talents.

"Watch the birdie" chirped Dale Grimes
As he made charming photos
He left his bowling alley work
To swell the Air Force quotas.

A lively lad Jim Hagan was
And strong in muscle, too
He lent his charms to Uncle Sam
And Served in Navy blue.

Chick Pat Hinze made a friend
Of everyone she knew
She led the cheers for victory
And teaching learned at O. S. U.

Tall Larry Jauert loved his Sports
And puzzled over chess
He slowly conned o'er choice of work
Mechanics won we quess.

Mark Jones played hard in basketball
Had fun with every friend
Thought best to part from "Motor Sales"
A teacher's life to spend.

Perry Kantner- intellect
Spared naught to make an "A"
Starred in "Atomic Blonde" and math
Till law claimed him for aye.

Bill Kuhlman liked his ball games, too
And girls he loved as much
His easy happy mode of life
For coach will give the touch.

Larry Leffel won our hearts
By quiet charming manner
He liked Vo-ag and served in sports
To win the county banner.

Dale Manbeck earned the rank of Eagle
Served both his school and church
Went on to horticulture class
Dame Nature's skill to search.

Tom McClure, good-natured soul
Served sports, and, band, and chorus
As president our Senior year
He kindly did much for us.

Dale Meckstroth had a handsome face
And will to work at aught
He studied, sang, and vended pop
As helpful deeds he wrought.

Karen Meckstroth is the girl
To grace a business office
She dresses neat, she's hard to beat
In giving worthwhile service.

Larry Niemeyer, extra quiet
Wants to be a draftsman
He's mighty nice to be around
And flying's his ambition.

Larry Roettger always active
Quipped both loud and long
He liked sports cars and breezed about
As though life were a song.

Kind Joyce Settlege, so petite
She'll be a good beautician
Her work in band was oh so neat
The school will surely miss her.

Edward Shupp may be a farmer
Cause he's hale and hearty
He liked Vo. Ag. so well in school,
To him it was a party.

Kathleen Wellman, gracious true,
Will learn beautician's skill
Played clarinet, paino, too.
Accompanied all the singers.

Laura Wierwille, scholarly,
Studied for pastime
She early entered Miami
As Doctor was her aim.

Chorus.
Class of '60 here's to you
Class of '60 ever
We numbered only twenty-two
But mighty in endeavor.

(The senior song is to be sung to the tune of "Yankee Doodle")
